

A scatter plot showing the relationship between the number of letters in a name (X-axis) and the number of children (Y-axis). The data points are labeled with names. A positive linear trend is visible. A horizontal line segment is drawn at Y=10, labeled with a dollar sign ($) and a circled O.